19 The parties appeared before the Honorable Sallie Kim on December 2, 2015, for a detention 20 hearing. The defendant was present and represented by defense counsel Ryan V. McHugh. The 21 government was represented by Assistant United States Attorney Brian R. Faerstein. The government 22 moved for detention, submitting that no condition or combination of conditions of release would 23 reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required or the safety of the community.

24 The Court has considered the parties' proffers during the hearing, the defendant's past conduct 25 and criminal record, the materials found during a search of the defendant's residence, the bail study, and 26 the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g). For the reasons stated on the record at the hearing, 27 including consideration of the history and characteristics of the defendant and the nature and seriousness

CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

1 of the danger posed to the community should the defendant be released prior to trial, the Court finds by 2 clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the 3 safety of any other person or the community.

4 The Court therefore orders the defendant detained prior to trial in this matter. The defendant is 5 committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a 6 correctional facility. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with 7 counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the 8 person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for a 9 court appearance.

10 IT IS SO ORDERED.
